President's Message Woody Woodard November 2013

Platters Restaurant was the scene of a Highlands Chapter get together with Vic McMurry, our Regional VP and his Sergeant at Arms prior to our regular Chapter meeting on Oct 19th. Vic announced that he will not continue in this position next year in order to take over as President of Saramana Chapter next year.

Ron Yates agreed to become Publicity Chairman for the Chapter. This is a very important office. Highlands Chapter exposure in the newspapers and elsewhere is very important to our growth. Thanks Ron.

Rod Dilling was notified by NSSAR that he has been approved for membership. I will induct Rod into membership at our Nov 16th meeting if the papers arrive in time. Rod will serve on the Membership Committee with George Frey. Of course we are all unofficial members of the membership committee.

We look forward to James Dean making the move from Ft Lauderdale to Sebring. James will lead our Eagle Scout program. He was an Eagle Scout and as such has a great deal of insight into their program.

I asked everyone to watch for potential Flag Certificate recipients in their neighborhoods. As you know the recognition is for flying the flag for purely patriotic purposes.

A "heads up" – If you wish to contact NSSAR merchandise, call Susanna Jolen in the morning or before midday. After about 3 pm, they are often busy taking care of business.

The joint meeting with the Patriot Chapter of the DAR had to be postponed. General Dozier, the speaker, was not available in November. We are trying to reschedule for January. Stay tuned for further developments.

Our next Highlands Chapter meeting will be November 16th, 12:30 pm at Heartland National Bank in Lake Placid. We look forward to seeing you there.

A Reminder – Our December Chapter Meeting will be December 14th, the 2nd Saturday in December rather than the usual 3rd Saturday of the month. I made this change for December to space it between the busy Thanksgiving and Christmas holiday seasons. Please mark your calendars.

All the best,
Woody
